

VALUES EDUCATION LEARNING HUB

VALUES IN ACTION

The Values Education (VE) Learning Hub hosted its inaugural event, "Values in Action - Tools and Tips," at Ma Tau Chung Government Primary School (Hung Hom Bay) on November 5, 2024. The event attracted approximately 200 educators, making it a vibrant gathering of professionals dedicated to fostering students' proper values and attitudes.

This event served as an invaluable platform for educators to delve into the latest updates from the Education Bureau (EDB) on VE. Participants enriched their understanding of how to authentically incorporate VE into English language learning and teaching and analyse their school contexts to develop actionable plans for integrating VE into the English Language curriculum. Throughout the event, educators engaged in meaningful connections, exchanged insights and shared best practices for integrating VE into their lessons.

* Participants engaged in the interactive activity and shared their understanding about the priority values and attitudes.

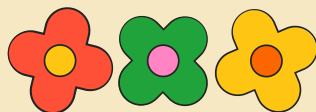

* Participants took time to analyse their school contexts and devise an action plan.

* All participants showing their major takeaways.

Event Highlights

A highlight of the event was the series of school presentations. Mr Peter IWANOWSKI from Ma Tau Chung Government Primary School (Hung Hom Bay) showcased a P2 unit entitled "Good Boys and Girls: How Can I Be a Good Citizen?" He guided attendees through his comprehensive process, from planning and identifying the unit objectives to designing activities and assessing students' understanding with concept charts.

Mr Peter IWANOWSKI presenting the Primary 2 unit on "Good Boys and Girls: How Can I Be a Good Citizen?"

From left to right:
Ms Jenny YEUNG (CCDO, NET Section)
Ms NG Yim Ting (Principal, Ma Tau Chung Government Primary School (Hung Hom Bay))
Mr Peter IWANOWSKI (NET, Ma Tau Chung Government Primary School (Hung Hom Bay))

From left to right:
Ms Ann-Marie YOUNG (NET, St Paul's Primary Catholic School)
Ms Jenny YEUNG (CCDO, NET Section)
Ms Adelaide HON (EPC, St Paul's Primary Catholic School)

Additionally, Ms Adelaide HON and Ms Ann-Marie YOUNG from St. Paul's Primary Catholic School focused on identifying resources and shared their innovative approaches to integrating VE not only within lessons but also during school assemblies and activities, demonstrating the whole-school participation.

All presenters highlighted effective strategies and resources that help foster positive values and attitudes in their classrooms.

The "Values in Action" planning tool was also introduced, the VE team guided the educators through the planning stages of embedding priority values and attitudes into their English Language curriculum.

Advisory Teachers facilitated this process with the teachers, ensuring a collaborative experience. The reflections of participants were highlighted on colorful post-it notes, displaying the collective insights of this learning community.

Major takeaways from the participants.

Major takeaways from the participants.